

readiness of the U.S. Armed Forces, perhaps for a generation.

At a time when we need to be more ready than before, this is a tremendous cause for alarm, as we are prosecuting two separate wars.

Today's bill addresses many of our current needs associated with:

A pay raise for the men and women who wear the uniform of the United States,

Beefing up today's ground forces—our boots on the ground overseas,

Addressing the many failings of this administration and the last Congress in ensuring our military is ready for any challenge we need to meet, such as finally providing oversight of contractors in Iraq and Afghanistan,

Equipping our National Guard to help offset some of the equipment lost to active duty needs in Iraq, and Providing assistance for the men and women who are hospitalized at Walter Reed Army Medical Center, which was the center of tremendous shortcomings earlier this year.

I thank the gentleman from Pennsylvania for his hard work on the bill—as well as the rest of the leadership in the House—for their deep and abiding respect of the U.S. Armed Forces and the unique challenges they face at this moment in time.

I urge my colleagues to support the bill.

Mr. YOUNG of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. MURTHA. Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.
